

ABOUT

Soy Source is a Japanese language newspaper that celebrates the people and events in the Greater Seattle community. Founded in 1992, Soy Source is the only Japanese publication that is locally-operated in Seattle. Our readers are primarily Japanese natives who have lived in the area for many years and tend to have higher educations and incomes. Through the publication's semi-monthly paper issues, website, online videos, and SNS pages, Soy Source is the most effective media for reaching the Japanese community in the Seattle area.
